

SEISMIC PRIVACY NOTICE

GLOBAL DATA PROTECTION - 2025

PRIVACY POLICY

DHL Supply Chain Management GmbH and its affiliates (“DHL”, “we”) take your privacy seriously. When you engage with our content, we use cookies to collect data about your interactions to help us enhance our services and solutions. We have a dedicated Privacy Notice that details what information DHL collects and how we use it during any interaction with our websites. You can find it here.

Cookies are small files that allow us to store information related to your device and you, specifically, when you visit one of our microsites or access our content via livesend. With your consent, we use third-party cookies provided by our business partner Seismic Software, Inc (“Seismic”), in conjunction with your IP addresses, to monitor and analyze the usage of our website and content, track how often you access it, and authenticate if necessary.

You can find the different categories of cookies (strictly necessary, necessary & functional, all tracking cookies) in the table below. All cookies are removed from your device after 90 days, and no data is transferred outside of the European Economic Area.

User Consent:

By consenting to the use of cookies, you acknowledge that you have read this Privacy Notice and consent to the collection and use of your personal information as outlined above. You may withdraw your consent by choosing only the “strictly necessary cookies” via “My privacy settings”.

In the context of the data processing as described in this Privacy Notice, DHL will transfer your cookie data to Seismic, which is a content management supplier acting as our data processor. When Seismic processes data is contractually obliged to maintain strict confidentiality as per Art. 28 GDPR. DHL retains responsibility for safeguarding your personal data in such circumstances. The business partners follow the instructions of DHL, and this is guaranteed by technical and organizational measures, as well as by means of checks and controls.

You have the following rights:

- Right to access information: You can request information about your personal data processed.
- Right to data portability: You have the right to port your data to another company.
- Right to erasure/be forgotten: You have the right, in certain circumstances, to request a deletion of your data.
- Right to restrict processing: You have the right to request a limitation in the way your data is used.
- Right to lodge a complaint: You have the right to lodge a complaint with the competent data protection supervisory authority.

You can direct your request based on the above rights or any other questions about this Privacy at dsc.dataprotection@dhl.com

We keep our Privacy Notice under regular review. DHL reserves the right to change its Privacy Notice at any time with or without prior notice. Please check back frequently to be informed of any changes.
