

Clicks, carts & conversions in Malaysia

What today's online shoppers really want (and how to deliver)

Whether you already sell to this market or you want to expand across borders, these insights can help you meet local expectations, engage shoppers and grow your sales.

Explore the full series of country reports and the Global E-Commerce Trends Report here.

Key

↑ = Higher than global average

→ = Same as global average

↓ = Lower than global average

Unpacking the dynamic Malaysian market

buy directly from social media platforms

The social shopper

make purchases during Black Friday weekend

The Black Friday shopper

buy refurbished or pre-owned items online

The refurbished and recycled shopper

say sustainability is important to them when shopping online

The sustainable shopper

buy from online retailers based in other countries

The cross-border shopper

have an online shopping subscription

The subscription shopper

99% buy from marketplaces

Which ones do they buy from the most?

Shopee

Lazada

Mudah

Temu

The conversion challenge: Turning browsers into buyers

Shoppers in Malaysia browse more than they buy. But if you get the experience right at every touchpoint, your business can turn clicks into sales.

13% ↓

Once a month or less

16% ↓

Once a week

71% ↑

At least two to three times a week

41% ↓

Once a month or less

30% ↑

Once a week

29% ↑

At least two to three times a week

What device do they use to shop?

Smartphone

98% ↑

Laptop/desktop

67% ↓

Retailer's mobile app

70% ↓

Voice commands

36% →

How do they pay?

Credit or debit card

86% ↑

Digital wallet

78% ↑

Buy Now, Pay Later

51% ↑

What do Malaysian shoppers buy online?

The shift to more sustainable choices

60% of Malaysian shoppers say sustainability will become more important to them in the next five years.

Social shopping: connecting trends with the cart

89% of shoppers in Malaysia have made a purchase on social media, and 95% say it could become their top shopping destination by 2030.

Keeping up vs. buying: generational differences

Gen Z and Millennials are the most active social shoppers, and they buy the most from TikTok, followed by Facebook and Instagram. Baby Boomers don't shop on social media as much but are more likely to use it to keep up to date with new products.

Do Malaysian shoppers believe the Black Friday hype?

54% buy online during Black Friday or Cyber Monday – but 32% don't believe the hype.

81% of Malaysian shoppers are motivated by savings and discounts during Black Friday. Millennials and Gen Z lead in activity, while Baby Boomers are the least likely to trust retailers' offers and prices.

How much do Malaysian shoppers buy and do they trust retailers' Black Friday offers?

	Buy more or the same	Buy less or not at all	Completely or mostly trust retailers' offers
Gen Z	56%	44%	68%
Millennials	63%	37%	72%
Gen X	52%	48%	62%
Baby Boomers	40%	60%	53%

What does it take to win over Malaysian shoppers?

From high delivery costs and limited product information to not being offered their preferred options for receiving or returning their orders, the barriers to purchase for Malaysian shoppers are clear. To turn browsers into buyers, you need to provide the delivery and returns options these shoppers want – otherwise, they're likely to walk away instead of clicking 'buy now'.

What frustrates these shoppers?

What improvements do they want?

What makes them abandon their baskets?

Where does Malaysia buy from?

54% of shoppers in Malaysia buy from retailers in other countries – and 42% do so at least once a month. This rises to 48% for Gen Z shoppers and 58% for subscription shoppers in this market.

45% ↑

buy from other countries to get better quality products

63% ↑

don't buy from other countries due to longer delivery times

70% ↑

say secure payment options and buyer protection would make them feel more confident buying across borders

Who buys from Malaysia?

India

Thailand

China

Do you run an e-commerce business in Malaysia?

Expanding into new markets could be your next big growth opportunity. Find out more about our fast, affordable and reliable international delivery and returns.

How can you deliver on their expectations?

3 in 4 Malaysian shoppers will abandon their baskets if their preferred delivery and returns options aren't available. Demand for out-of-home returns is high in this market as well as free returns and delivery – 55% say they mainly buy from online retailers that offer free delivery and returns. Explore the increasing popularity of out-of-home.

Delivery preferences

Returns preferences

64% ↓

won't buy from an online retailer if they don't trust the delivery provider

66% ↓

won't buy from an online retailer if they don't trust the returns provider

How do they track and redirect their parcels?

If they're not home to receive their parcel, they prefer to:

31% ↓

track and redirect their deliveries using the delivery provider's app

26% ↓

use the delivery provider's website

Return to retailer

49% of shoppers in Malaysia have returned an item to an online retailer, with 93% returning up to 30% of their purchases. Gen Z, refurbished shoppers and cross-border shoppers are the most frequent returners. Review the global returns landscape.

What are their return label preferences?

Top reasons for returning items:

1. Poor quality
2. Damaged during transit
3. Wrong size
4. Doesn't look like the image
5. Doesn't suit them

37% →

have spent more to get free delivery, then returned the extra items

63% ↑

prefer to return items via out-of-home locations

Unpack even more global insights...